An international community of learners striving for excellence and celebrating success

Dear Parents

During the period of the Holy Month of Ramadan the school will be opening at a later time. I have not had the start and finish times officially confirmed yet but last year the children's lessons ran from 8.30am – 12.30pm.

Once I get these times officially confirmed I will write to you.

Out of respect for the Holy Month and for fasting students, staff and parents, eating and drinking will be prohibited in the school except for clearly defined areas out of sight of those who are fasting. If your child is not fasting they will be taken to these areas and supervised to consume their snacks.

There will be no after-school activities in this period. In this time there will be no celebrations of birthdays during the school day.

Respectfully

David Davies
